PRIVACY POLICY

We at SolarWish Games (also known as SolarWish, MiniMania, we, us) respect your privacy and recognize the importance of providing a secure environment for your personal data. Therefore, we are committed to being transparent about how we collect and process your personal data.

The purpose of this privacy policy ("Privacy Policy") is to inform you, as a user, of why and how we process your personal data (i.e. all information that can be linked or attributed to you, Personal Data), when you access and use our games, mobile applications, websites and related services. This includes information about who we will share your Personal Data with, how long we will keep it and what your rights are in relation to the processing of that data.

This Privacy Policy applies whenever you play MiniMania, use our services on the MiniMania mobile apps, or visit our website <https://www.minimania.app/> ("Website Services"), which we collectively refer to as Services .

GENERAL INFORMATION

In this part of our Privacy Policy, you will find information about how we process your Personal Data when you use our Services. For more detailed specific information about our processing activities, please see the specific information below.

1. Who is responsible for processing your Personal Data? SolarWish Games Serviços LTDA, Rua Ascencional 237, Apartamento 44, São Paulo, São Paulo, Brazil is responsible (the Data Controller) for the processing of your Personal Data when you play MiniMania, visit our Services Site or use our Services.

2. What types of Personal Data do we process and how do we collect it?

When you use our Services, we collect, use, store and transfer different types of Personal Data. As a general principle, we do not collect and do not ask you to provide us with any special category of Personal Data, which is specially protected information, such as information about health, religion, political opinions or philosophical beliefs, preferences or sexual orientation.

The information we collect depends on which of our Services you use and how you use them. We process the following types of Personal Data:

2.1 Personal Data provided by you

When you use our Services, you provide or are asked to provide us with certain information, including:

Your Account Information: In order to use our Services, you need to create an account. This will also allow you to use our Services on different devices. When you create your account, we collect your login details (e-mail, password, date of birth, first and last name and nickname/avatar name) and additional profile information provided by you to customize your profile (such as choosing the appearance of your avatar). This information will be associated with your Account ID.

Store: If you purchase subscriptions and packs, currencies or items in our application, we process this information with your account data to provide our Services.

In-game chats, groups or private conversations, internal emails: Please note that our Services offer in-game chats, groups or private conversations, internal emails, community environments or other tools with no audience restriction. If you provide Personal Data when using any of these features, that Personal Data may be published and disclosed, without limitation on its use by us or third parties. If you decide to post any personal data in public forums on our Services, please be aware that it will be visible to others as noted above. To request the removal of your Personal Data from a public forum on one of our Services, please contact our support via email support@minimania.app

Private Chat Messages and Internal Emails: Information sent individually or within a limited group using our messaging, chat, posting or similar functionality.

Please be aware that when using the chat function, the information you disclose may be read, copied, collected or used by other users. Never share information or personal data that is harmful to you or others.

Friends List: We collect information about the people and groups you are connected to.

Information provided in connection with our customer service: When you contact support, we collect your contact details (email), information about your request (subject, description, your relationship with MiniMania, whether you are a player MiniMania or the person responsible for a MiniMania, and the topic you want to talk about), your MiniMania name and other information (optional), and attached files (optional).

Information provided relating to transactions and payments: When carrying out a transaction on MiniMania (example: purchased items or subscriptions, order details), we collect related information, for example method, status and date of payment. We do not collect any card data. You will be redirected to an external service provider to complete the payment.

Our payment service providers send us the payment confirmation details. For more details, see the service-specific information below.

2.2 Personal Data we receive or generate from your use of our Services

When you use our Services, we may also process device-related information and information about how you interact with our Services, including:

Technical information: We collect information about the device/device settings you use for the purposes described below. The information we obtain from your device(s) includes type, IDs, online identifiers (IP address), timestamp, geolocation data (based on IP address), URL visited, browser, screen resolution and other technical information.

Cookie Data: As described in more detail in our Cookie Policy (Cookie Policy), we use cookies and similar technologies, such as pixels or local storage, and we allow third parties to use cookies and similar technology for the purposes described below. The exact process for placing cookies and the scope of data that may therefore be processed are set out in our Cookie Policy.

Your Usage: We collect information about how you use our Services. This information includes actions you take in a game (for example, your performance (such as level achieved), items purchased on our Service, amount spent on the Service, list of friends), the time and duration of your activity and your ad interactions (clicks, conversions, and creative views). In addition, we collect information about the websites that refer you to our Services. Part of this information will be stored in your account (such as your friends list and your game progress).

2.3. Personal Data we collect from third parties

In certain situations, we will also obtain your Personal Data from third parties, in strict compliance with applicable data protection laws and regulations. Your Personal Data may be provided by the following third parties:

Payment service providers: If you made a payment on an app or website, the transaction will be processed by a third-party payment service provider and will be subject to that third-party payment service provider's privacy policies. We do not receive any complete financial information from these transactions (such as complete credit or debit card information), but we may receive information relating to your transaction, for example, the method, status and date of payment.

3. Do we collect data from minors?

The Services are not directed or intended for use by anyone under the age of ten (10). Our terms of use prohibit users under the age of ten (10) from accessing MiniMania, and relevant age ratings are defined in the app stores and implemented by the app store provider, to comply with our terms of use. If we become aware that we have collected personal data from a user under the age of 10 (ten), we will delete this data as soon as possible.

If you believe that a user may be under 10 (ten) years old, please contact our support via email support@minimania.app

4. For what purpose do we process your Personal Data? Depending on which Services you are using and the privacy settings you have selected, we process your Personal Data for the following purposes:

- to inform you of changes to this Privacy Policy;
- to prevent offensive language and abusive behavior in-game via chat;

See the service-specific information section below for a more detailed description of the purposes for which we process your Personal Data on our Services.

5. Do we participate in profiling activities?

If you consent, we use tracking mechanisms to track your Personal Data for profiling. This allows us to provide you with relevant content and tailor our services and advertisements to your interests. You have the right to object to this type of processing. You can also go to your game or cookie settings to review and edit your privacy choices relating to this type of processing at any time.

On what legal basis do we process your Personal Data?

We process your Personal Data for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy, based on the following legal grounds:

Your consent: We process your Personal Data if you have given your consent for a specific purpose. For example, when you use our Services for the first time, we ask for your consent to the processing of data in the context of sending you newsletters, personalized advertisements, analysis and profiling. We also show you just-in-time contextual notifications and consent pop-ups to obtain your consent for further processing activities. You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time, for example by changing game or cookie settings. Please note that this will not alter any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent.

Fulfillment of a contract: We process your Personal Data for the performance of a contract or to take steps before entering into a contract to which you are a party, for example where this is necessary for the creation and administration of your account, to process your in-game purchases and payment for them, in the context of customer service, to help run the game or facilitate the provision of requested services.

Compliance with legal obligations to which you are subject: We process your Personal Data for compliance with legal obligations, for example, verifying your age, for tax and accounting purposes or legal disputes.

Legitimate interests: We also process your Personal Data within the necessary limits of our legitimate interests or those of third parties, while adopting adequate safeguards to protect your privacy. For example, we process your Personal Data to improve the Services we provide to you, or to provide you with a better user experience, and we process your personal data to obtain statistics about the popularity of our Services in the context of products and services of companies in the group.

See additional information in the service-specific information section below.

WITH WHO DO WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

We will not disclose your Personal Data to anyone who is not authorized to process it. In order to manage our Services, we will share your Personal Data internally with members of our responsible, technical assistance and customer service departments involved in processing the games and, in each case, only if access to your Personal Data is necessary for the performance of our Services. its functions.

In addition, and only when necessary to fulfill the purposes mentioned above, we will disclose your Personal Data to the following recipients or categories of recipients, or allow the following third parties to collect your Personal Data in connection with your use of our Services:

External service providers: We share your Personal Data with external service providers who perform services on our behalf, such as customer care services, IT services, hosting and content delivery services, social media analysis and web analytics services, user notification and marketing services. When we share your Personal Data with external service providers, we have the respective agreements in place to ensure that your Personal Data is processed in compliance with applicable data protection legislation.

Payment service providers: If you made payments on an app or website, the transaction will be processed by a third-party payment service provider and will be subject to that third-party payment service provider's privacy policies.

External advertising companies: With your consent, we share your Personal Data with third-party advertising companies to collect your Personal Data when you use our Services. If you choose not to receive any type of personalized advertisement, we will still show you advertisements, but they may not be of interest to you as they will be advertisements for specific content rather than user specific. Please note that when you click on a third-party advertisement, you may be redirected to the third-party advertiser's environment, over which the third-party has control.

Social networks and connected third-party platforms: If you want to share certain content on social networks, you will be asked to login with your platform credentials. In this case, the content you want to share (for example, a screenshot of the game) will be sent to the respective social network or third-party platform.

Law enforcement authorities, government authorities or courts: We disclose your Personal Data in accordance with lawful requests from public authorities, including law enforcement authorities, government authorities, supervisory authorities or courts.

Other third parties: We also disclose your Personal Data in the event of a reorganization, merger, sale, joint venture, assignment, transfer, planned or actual, or other disposition of all or a part of our business or our assets (including insolvency or other similar proceedings).

See the service-specific information section below for more information about the third parties we may share your data with.

WHERE WILL MY PERSONAL DATA BE PROCESSED?

Generally, your Personal Data is stored on servers outside the European Union (EU)/European Economic Area (EEA). We implement appropriate safeguards to protect your Personal Data when transferred outside the EU/EEA, including enforcing the European Commission's standard data protection clauses (also known as Model Clauses) to provide protection for your Personal Data.

HOW DO WE PROTECT YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

We implement technical and organizational security measures designed to protect your Personal Data against accidental, illegal or unauthorized destruction, loss, alteration, access, disclosure or use. We continually update and test our security standards. Furthermore, we take reasonable steps to ensure that third parties, to whom we transfer your Personal Data, provide sufficient protection for the Personal Data.

HOW LONG DO WE STORE YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

We will not retain your Personal Data for longer than necessary to fulfill the purposes for which the data was collected, comply with our legal obligations or necessary for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims or dispute resolution. Thereafter, we will delete or anonymize your Personal Data. See below for service-specific information on how long we will retain your Personal Data. Additional information on how long your Personal Data is stored by our service partners can be found in the list of the respective third party available here.

What are your rights in relation to your Personal Data? Within the limits of applicable data protection laws and regulations, you have the following rights in relation to your Personal Data:

- the right to access the personal data we hold about you;
- the right to request the update or correction of your personal data
- the right to receive your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format;
- the right to request the deletion of your personal data;
- the right to restrict the processing of your personal data;
- the right to withdraw your consent.

Right of opposition:

In case that we process your Personal Data based on our legitimate interests, you have the right to object to the processing for specific reasons related to your particular situation. In these cases, we will no longer process your Personal Data unless we have compelling legitimate interests for the processing, which would override your interests, rights and freedoms, or for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

You also have the right to object when we are processing your Personal Data for direct marketing purposes (including profiling). In this case, we will stop processing your Personal Data for marketing purposes.

You can exercise your rights by submitting a request to the contact details below, with your email, other mandatory information and the description of the request.

If you believe that we have failed to fulfill our obligations under applicable data protection laws and regulations, please file a complaint with the competent data protection authority, for example the Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens in the Netherlands.

How do I request my Personal Data?

Confidentiality of personal data and protection of customer privacy are important core values in all our operations. At MiniMania, we maintain an extremely high level of data protection. We process your personal data only for the appropriate purposes defined in advance and only when necessary.

You have the right to access and data portability.

Below you will find a step by step guide on how to request your MiniMania data:

Log in to your MiniMania Account and click the Settings button.

Access the Account data tab.

Click the Request data button.

You will be notified as soon as the data is available. Please note that this may take several days.

The link to access your data will be available for up to 10 days after the date it is made available for download.

If you want to cancel your data request, go to the Account data tab in the Settings window. You can access the settings window by clicking on the gear icon in the lower right corner of the screen and clicking on the Cancel button.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FOR CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS

This section for California residents supplements the information provided in this Privacy Policy and applies only to players and others who reside in the State of California. We provide this section to comply with the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (CCPA) and regulations issued pursuant thereto; accordingly, this section addresses specific CCPA requirements and should be read in conjunction with this Privacy Policy.

We do not sell your Personal Data. However, we may share or provide access to each of the categories of Personal Data we collect as necessary for our business purposes. We collect information that identifies, relates to, describes, references, is capable of being associated with, or can reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, to a particular consumer or device. In particular, we have collected the following categories of personal information (as provided for by the CCPA) from consumers in the past twelve (12) months:

Category A – Identifiers (such as device identifier, demographic information – such as country, username, email address, any information you may provide – such as age or language)

Category B – Categories of personal information listed in the California Customer Records statute (California Civil Code § 1798.80(e))

Category D – Business information (such as purchase history)

Category F - Internet activity or other similar network activity (such as interaction with our advertisements, IP address)

Category G - Geolocation data

Category H – Sound, electronic, visual, thermal, olfactory or similar information. The CCPA gives consumers (California residents) specific rights over their personal information.

You have a right to access specific information, for example you can request that we disclose certain information about our collection and use of your personal information over the past 12 months.

You have a right to know. Under the CCPA, you have the right to request that we disclose what Personal Data we process about you.

You have a right to delete, which means that you can request that we delete any of your personal information that we collect and retain, subject to certain exceptions.

You have the right to data portability, which allows you to request the transfer of your personal data to another data controller.

Under the CCPA, you have the right to refuse any sale of your personal data. Please note that your right of refusal does not apply to our sharing personal data with service providers, who are contracted parties to perform a function on our behalf and are contractually obligated to use the personal data for that function only.

Finally, you have the right not to be discriminated against for exercising your rights under the CCPA.

You can exercise your rights by submitting a request to the contact details above, with your name, email and description of the request.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FOR RESIDENTS IN BRAZIL

In accordance with the General Law for the Protection of Personal Data (LGPD), you have the right to access, rectify, transfer, delete and confirm that we process your data. If you have given consent to the processing of your data, you have the right to withdraw it at any time.

SERVICE SPECIFIC INFORMATION

In this part of our Privacy Policy, you will find specific information about how your Personal Data is processed. For general information about the data processing used, see above.

MINIMANIA

Hosting and content delivery:

MiniMania is hosted by external companies that provide web servers and deliver web content. Each time you make a request, for example by clicking on a link on our platform, the information enabling this request (e.g. device information and requested content), as well as online identifiers (your IP address), will be sent to external servers. This data is used to show the content of your request in a faster way. We process this data based on our legitimate interest, to provide and improve our service and ensure its functionality.

Creating/Administrating Your Account:

To play MiniMania, you have to create an account. We store your account data (login credentials, email, password, date of birth, account ID, first and last name, avatar and avatar name), to allow you to log in on different devices, and also to socialize and communicate with other players, based on the fulfillment of a contract.

In addition, we will store your avatar's game progress, your virtual assets (worlds, items, coins, levels) and your friends list in your account for multiplayer/online game play.

Your account data will be stored as long as it exists, based on the fulfillment of a contract. You can delete your MiniMania account at any time, for example by submitting a deletion request to our customer service team via the Right to Erasure feature in-game, contacting our support via email. mail support@minimania.app. MiniMania may retain your account data after a deletion request due to legal or regulatory requirements or for the reasons indicated in this Privacy Policy.

Customer service:

If you contact us to request customer service, an external customer service company will process your email address and/or your name (optional), and the content of your request. In order to provide you with the service, this information will be processed together with your device information (model, operating system, game language, provider), user ID, user segment and the last steps taken in the game. Request history is stored for you for the life of your account to help handle new requests based on your previous requests and to improve our services.

We process this data on the basis of the fulfillment of a contract, as necessary for the information to respond to your request. The continued storage of your request history is based on our legitimate interest in order to improve our services and for possible legal disputes.

Payments:

If you make in-app purchases, you will be redirected to a third-party payment service provider to complete your payment transaction.

Transactions will be processed by a third party payment service provider. We do not collect or receive any financial data (such as your bank account details), but we do collect or receive from third-party payment service providers the following information in connection with your transaction: the quantity and item purchased, the price and currency, your country, your IP address, email, device (user agent) information, timestamp, URL visited, payment method, expiry date and last four digits of your credit card (only for purchases made on your credit card). credit/debit), payment/transaction ID, and payment status.

We store this information for at least 7 years, or up to 10 years depending on the service provider.

We process your Personal Data in connection with your payments based on the fulfillment of a contract, to facilitate your in-game purchases.

Chat, private chat, internal emails:

If you use the chat feature in our game, your messages will be processed, along with your user ID and avatar, the timestamp, recipients of your messages or room ID (if you post your message in a room public chat). This process is based on the fulfillment of a contract.

The content of your messages will also be processed by an external content moderation service, to detect and filter offensive language or violations of our Terms of Service, and to define automatic sanctions (temporary silence) for violators. This process is based on our legitimate interests.

Please be aware that when using the chat function, the information you disclose may be read, copied, collected or used by other users. Never share information or personal data that is harmful to you or others.

Login to all in-game activities:

To help with any issues you may have with our game, understand how our software works, and investigate fraud and illegal behavior in our game, we collect and store every step you take on MiniMania, along with the following information: your account, your IP address and device (user agent) information in our logs, which will be deleted after ninety (90) days.

This process is based on our legitimate interests to be able to analyze and resolve any potential issues with our Services.

Account Settings

1. Privacy

In the Privacy settings, you can control:

Language filter;
Receive or not receive invitations to groups;
Check your orders in our store;
Check your purchases made in the game's internal store;
Who can and cannot see you online;
